Mont Surfaces and Susie Frazier Announce a Strategic Partnership to Inspire Personal Renewal in the Home Improvement Space

CLEVELAND, OHIO — Mont Surfaces, one of the largest suppliers of fine surface materials in the Midwest, and Susie Frazier, a highly recognized Cleveland artist and designer of Earthminded Style[®], today announced a new strategic partnership based upon a shared vision of wellness through reflective design. By combining Mont's expertise in innovative trends and fine surface materials with Susie's talent and design-centered connection to nature, they plan to empower consumers to awaken their individuality through their own home improvements.

Together, Mont Surfaces and Susie Frazier are collaborating around lifestyle, art, nature, natural stone and creative surface materials in a way that will inspire consumers to initiate a degree of personal renewal. This will be achieved through various channels, including shared blog postings, earned media, social media, personal appearances, feature print articles and digital media.

Susie Frazier, founder of SUSIE FRAZIER Inc. commented "I couldn't be more thrilled to be working with Mont Surfaces. As consumers look to create spaces that revitalize and nurture the spirit, we will be there with Mont to offer new design ideas that truly support that mission."

"Mont is very pleased to form a partnership with Susie Frazier. By combining Susie's passion for art, nature and reclamation with Mont's vision to blend beauty, nature and innovation, we can spark exciting new concepts and theories for reflective, integrated design," said Dinesh Bafna, President of Mont Surfaces by Mont Granite, Inc.

Both Mont Surfaces by Mont Granite, Inc. and SUSIE FRAZIER Inc. are headquartered in Cleveland, Ohio.
